My Dear Children

I hope this letter will find you all in good health as it lave me at this time. Bliss God for it. I receved your letter and was glad to here you ware all well and to hear Mary was well and wish she may stop whre she is. I like my self first rate here for I live well and do not work hard. I work for sum of the best men in the city. Last week I worked at the Bank. They will not have a drunkerd nor yet a man of bad name. Woolsey and I work together and we live well and out of deat (debt). I am goen to have a new pare of boots and have got the money to pay for them and if I had stopt in Wisconsin I should not have had no money, no boots.

Here is a great Revivel of Religion. Thear was a Love feast here to day and 22 admitted on tryel and we had the Lords Supper. We have go near 100 members here. I got up and told them what the Lord ad dun for me and my prayer is that you may all know the Lord, Seek him and he will be found, call upon him and he will be given, ask and he will turn your hell to heaven.

I wish you would be so kind as to give my love to all friends and tell them I Keep in the good old way. Write soon, My Dear Boy.

Your loveing father

My Dear Children and Granddaughter. (addressed to Walter B. Flatt at Stoughton)

I hope this will find you all well as it lave me at this time, thank God for all his Merces. I recieved your letter and you want to know who Mr. Woolsey is. He is a man that have lived at Swafham and have lived at thetford and lived at Methwold Fen and other places but I never heard him say ware he was born. He came out to Ypsilanti out of canede (Canada) but how long he was thear I do not know. We work togither and do any thing that come in the way: sawing, spliting, digen graves, or any thing els but theeving and that we let alone. I think I would pay sum of you to cum and see the country for I know here is a better liveing then in Wisconsin. Here is better land and better markets. You may sell aney thing there. Was sum men last summer that made 200 dollers per acer of tobaco. Farmes you may have on just the tarmes (terms) as in Wisconsin. Tom Jackson have got 200 sheep, cows, and horses, and a plenty of every thing. Hary Johnson is in another mess halling corn from Will Clark and Hary is cut it and don't know ware he is.

I have bought my self a pare of boots and paid for a newspaper and Hym Book or els I would have sent Mary a lttle money. Remember me to all. Rite soon, Yours.

My Dear Boy

I hope this will find you all well as it lave me at this time. Thank God for it. I have left Woolsey and let my self out to an old Judge of the County for 12 Dollers per Month and I think I have betterd my self for I live well and work at gardening. I have sum dollers oweing me for work. I guess they will come handy one day. I am not sorry I came to Ypsilanti for though I had bad luck at first, I git on well now. I can live and save money. Here is plenty of work hear now.

I should like to know how you are giting on now wither you are bound for Pike Peak. I know a man here had a letter last week from there and flower is 1 doller per pound, beans 13 dollers per Bushel and no meat cant be had. Cant git gold a nuf to bye food with and do not know what the end will be for there thay are and there thay must be for thay have got aney thing to. Go at aney ware but Pike Peak.

Let me know your mind by return of Post. Give my love to Brothers and Sisters and Wife and Child. But where you are, if I was Hannah, I will (would) be. Don't tell me of (your) laveing - if you do you will repent. I wish you all well. Yours etc.

Joseph Flatt

Look out for News. If aney of you come ask for Judge Comton and you will find Jos. Flatt.
